8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 TAMARA ALISHA BATTLES EL,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 LAURA VALENTE, Administrative Law
14 Judge,

15 Defendant.

Case No. C17-1145 RSM

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

16 This matter comes before the Court sua sponte on the Court's Order to Show Cause,
17 Dkt. #11. Pro Se Plaintiff Tamara Alisha Battles el has been granted leave to proceed in forma
18 pauperis in this matter. Dkt. #9. The Complaint was posted on the docket on August 14, 2017.
19 Dkt. #10. Summons has not yet been issued.

21 Plaintiff brings this action against "Laura Valente, Administrative Law Judge, Social 22 Security Administrative Offices of Disability Adjudication and Review." Id. Plaintiff accuses 23 Judge Valente of "erroring in law and fact while abusing discretion when rendering decision for 24 Claimants [sic] Disability and Supplemental Insurance application, thus violating any oaths of 25 office." Id. at 1. Plaintiff alleges this Court has jurisdiction "based on the diversity of 26 citizenship of the parties and the cause of action," and that Judge Valente "waives all implied
27
28

1 sovereign immunity as a [sic] agent for the state and federal agencies because she committed a
2 crimes [sic] of neglect and discrimination causing Claimant irreparable harm.” Id. Plaintiff
3 indicates that the source of her claim is “an unlawful unfavorable decision” rendered by Judge
4 Valente on January 27, 2016. Id. Plaintiff accuses Judge Valente of denying her due process
5 and discriminating against her “by failing to consider substantial objective medical evidence on 6 file...” Id. at 2. Plaintiff demands a “Writ of Prohibito for injunction immediately restraining
7 and removing any and ALL agency actor state and federal from any account held by 8 [Plaintiff],” as well as a writ of mandamus and restitution in the amount of “$5,000,000.00 Five 9 Million Dollars to relieve some of the irreparable harm caused by willful neglect and 10 Discrimination.” Id.

13 The Court notes that this is not a civil action challenging Judge Valente’s decision in
14 accordance with the procedure set forth in a letter entitled “Notice of Appeals Council Action”
15 sent to Plaintiff by the Social Security Administration. See Dkt. #2-2 at 2 (“[t]he Complaint
16 should name the Commissioner of Social Security as the defendant...”); see also Dkt. #7 (email
17 from Plaintiff to Court stating “[t]his is a tort claim against Laura Valente in her personal and 18 professional capacity...”). However, Plaintiff has informed the Court that she does have a 19 separate action reviewing the agency decision at issue in this case, currently pending in the 20 Ninth Circuit. Dkt. #12 at 1.

21
22 On August 17, 2017, this Court issued an Order to Show Cause in this matter. Dkt. #11.
23 The Court indicated that the Complaint fails to identify what laws or statues Plaintiff believes
24 give rise to a claim against Judge Valente personally, that Judge Valente is almost certainly 25 immune, and that Plaintiff’s claims appear frivolous. Id. The Court ordered Plaintiff to 26 respond with a short and plain statement telling the Court (1) the laws upon which her claims
27
28

1 are based, (2) how Defendant is not immune from suit, and (3) why this case should not be
2 dismissed as frivolous. Id.

3 On September 6, 2017, Plaintiff filed a Response. Dkt. #12. Plaintiff's Response is 4 divided into sections responding to each of the three topics above. For "laws upon which her
5 claims are based," Plaintiff includes, inter alia, the following statutes in list form: 18 U.S.C.
6 §241–242; 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, 1986; 18 U.S.C. §2255; 18 U.S.C. § 287; 18 U.S.C. §
7 152; 18 U.S.C. §1593; 18 U.S.C. §3571; 18 U.S.C. § 1001; 42 U.S.C. § 3795a. Id. at 2.
8 Plaintiff appears to argue that Defendant withheld her personal property thus causing
9 irreparable harm under § 1983. Id. For "how Defendant is not immune from suit," Plaintiff
10 cites to several irrelevant areas of law, including accusing Defendant of engaging in an 11 "economic war" in violation of international law, violating a fiduciary duty owed to Plaintiff
12 under Defendant's oath of office, violating the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution by 13 depriving her of security from government invasion, and engaging in civil conspiracy. Id. at 3.
14 Plaintiff accuses Defendant of engaging in "willful" conduct based on a history of rendering
15 "unfavorable decisions errored in law." Plaintiff's citation to law and quotes from cases lack 16 analysis or a clear connection to the facts of this case. Where Plaintiff does discuss this case,
17 she generally accuses Defendant of engaging in error by means of her judicial actions, e.g.
18 Plaintiff accuses Defendant of conducting an adversarial proceeding in violation of 20 CFR
19 405.1(c). Id. at 4. Plaintiff's response to "why this case should not be dismissed as frivolous"
20 is to provide generally out-of-context quotes from cases, e.g. "[s]ilence can only be equated
21 with fraud where there is a legal or moral duty to speak, or where and [sic] inquiry left
22 unanswered would be intentionally misleading... We cannot condone this shocking behavior...
23 This sort of deception will not be tolerated an [sic] if this routine is [sic] should be corrected
25
26
27
28

1 immediately.” Id. at 6 (citing U.S. v. Tweel, 550 F.2d 297, 299–300). Tweel was a criminal
2 case where the Defendant was charged with tax evasion and the Court criticized the deceptive
3 behavior of the IRS agents involved. See 550 F.2d at 299–300.

4 The Court will dismiss a Complaint at any time if the action fails to state a claim, raises
5 frivolous or malicious claims, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from
6 such relief. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). The Court has reviewed the record and Plaintiff’s
7 Response and finds that this suit is based on Judge Valente’s judicial actions, for which she is 8 immune. See Pierson v. Ray, 386 U.S. 547, 553-54 (1967); Hirsh v. Justices of the Supreme
9 Court, 67 F.3d 708, 715 (9th Cir. 1995) (“Administrative law judges and agency prosecuting
10 attorneys are entitled to quasi-judicial immunity so long as they perform functions similar to 11 judges and prosecutors in a setting like that of a court.”). Plaintiff’s allegation that Judge
12 Valente has waived immunity by committing “crimes” of neglect and discrimination is 13 unsupported by law or fact. Plaintiff’s request for $5 million is frivolous. Given all of this,
14 dismissal is therefore warranted. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).

15 Accordingly, the Court hereby finds and ORDERS:

- 16 1) Plaintiff’s claims are DISMISSED.
17 2) This matter is CLOSED.

18 DATED this 13th day of September 2017.
